

Women sapience

The women sapience for a nature advertising could be a time recitative for an artwork to depict the visible image that makes easier an access to reality yielding at the primitive stone of the former idol the reflect of an anthropological exchange with the same culture instance of the lowest and the highest volume for a succeeded diversion up to the beginning state of a golden water with the housing thread of a matriarchal homology to lionize the precious absolute of an antic fire that reconducts the exordium of the muse repertoire to her youth appearance rueing after the artist seed under the earth to not blossom forever the language of a reciprocal thought from his late existence.
